1. The Rumanian Workers Party allegedly contributed three million lei to the Bulgarian Communist Party's election fund, and had sent several propagandists to the Bulgarian Communist Party without a letter of introduction from Ana Pauker. Well informed circles interpret this as a sign that Ana Pauker may soon receive a "political reorientation" and be forced to retire.
2. According to reports from the Yugoslav-Rumanian frontier, two battalions of so-called Yugoslav "volunteers" believed to be former OZMA personnel, who were given special training in Crimea, are located in the Radujevac and Turnu-Severin area. These "volunteers" are supplied with special equipment (unspecified), armed with automatic weapons, motorized, and supported by a small air force unit.
3. In the vicinity of Bumbesti-Lupeni, five villages are reported to have been evacuated for a large military installation and maneuvers are to be held in this restricted area. Fifty hectares of land have been surrounded by electrified barbed wire. Rumanian, Soviet and German infantry and armored units are undergoing training in this area.
